About Me

About Me

I'm a Full-Stack Web Developer with a passion for creative design and problem solving. I have 3+ years of professional work experience in all phases of the development process. I believe coding is an artform and I work hard everyday at mastering my craft.

Strategy

I collaborate with clients to transform raw ideas into well thought out designs.

UX/UI

I create websites with intuitive UI patterns and simple interactions.

Responsive

Experienced in creating responsive layouts that look great on all devices.

Code

I focus on writing SOLID code that is efficient, modular and easy to read.
